

Parent Guide to Classroom Leadership through the eyes of the 7 Habits

Habit	Examples of what that means
1- Be Proactive	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I will go over the school/class expectations with my child. - I will speak positively and openly about the importance of school/class expectations - I will collaborate with my child's teacher if my child is having difficulty following the expectations - I will role model these expectations at home - I know, and my child knows the teachers will support them in collaboratively solving problems when expectations are not followed
2- Begin With the End In Mind	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - At OJCS each person is responsible for the other - North star alert - I want my child to go to a school that has clear and consistent expectations - I want to know what the expectations are and what the goals of my child's classroom are -I want my child to attend a school that is open, inclusive and fostering positive leadership
3- First Things First	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I will listen to my child and I will also listen to other points of view - I will offer support, guidance and reassurance - I won't let issues build up, if I am unsure of what has happened, I will ask my child's teacher for clarification before making assumptions - I will encourage my child to seek support from their teacher if they are upset or unclear - I will keep an open and positive mindset and collaborate with my child's teacher (we learn better together - North star alert)
4- Think Win - Win	Win - win in a classroom means that everyone should feel respected, heard, validated and supported. It means everyone feels included. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I will help my child be a leader by helping them understand how to include and accept others (we learn better together - North star alert) - I will strive for win-win and work collaboratively with my child's teacher to help set up my child for success
5- Seek First to Understand	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - It's important to listen to all sides. When I'm frustrated or upset because my child comes home sad or angry, I will seek first to understand the other side in order to get the full picture - I will ask questions when I don't understand what is happening

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I will try and understand which expectations were broken and why, and help my child move forward with better solutions for next time (we own my own learning - we own our own story - North Star alert)
6- Synergize	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -I will synergize with my child by supporting the school and classroom expectations - I will synergize with my child's teachers to ensure we are all working for the common goal of setting up my child for success (there is a floor but no ceiling - North Star alert)
7- Sharpen the Saw	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -I will help my child be their best self by ensuring proper sleep habits, eating habits and exercise habits - I will make time for family time, games, fun activities and hobbies (Ruach - North star alert)

Administrator's Guide to Classroom Leadership through the eyes of the 7 Habits

Habit	Examples of what that means
1- Be Proactive	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - We will understand and know the school/class expectations - We will support teachers in creating expectations that align with the OJCS North Stars - We will collaborate with the teachers when problems arise - We will help teachers implement Proactive Plan B - We will support teachers in following through with identifying lagging skills and unsolved problems - We will communicate with families about classroom leadership
2- Begin With the End In Mind	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - At OJCS each person is responsible for the other - North star alert - We want the school to have clear and consistent expectations - We want teachers, students and parents to feel supported -We know what the expectations are and know what the goals of each classroom are - We want students to attend a school that is open, inclusive and fostering positive leadership
3- First Things First	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -We will listen to the teachers when problems arise - We will encourage and support teachers and students modeling leadership - collaborate on identifying lagging skills and unsolved problems

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - We will ask clarifying questioning if need be - We will proactively engage with families - highlighting positive moments and not so positive moments -We will strive for clear communication with teachers, students and parents (we learn better together - North star alert)
4- Think Win - Win	Win - win means everyone feels respected, heard, validated and supported. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -We will help problem solve in order to reach a win-win situation between teachers and students, teachers and parents, teachers and teachers, students and students (we learn better together - North star alert)
5- Seek First to Understand	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - We know that it's important to listen to all sides - We know that it's important to have time to gather information - We will listen to teachers, students and parents and we will assist to problem solve collaboratively (we own my own learning - we own our own story - North Star alert)
6- Synergize	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -We will work together with students, teachers and parents to help support and create positive leadership in each classroom (there is a floor but no ceiling - North Star alert)
7- Sharpen the Saw	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -We will encourage, praise, reinforce and celebrate positive leadership qualities in teachers, students and parents (Ruach - North star alert)