

Student Guide to Classroom Leadership through the eyes of the 7 Habits

Habit	Examples of what that means
1- Be Proactive	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- I need to know and understand there are expectations I must follow</li> <li>- I will ask questions to clarify what the expectations mean if I don't understand</li> <li>- I will review the expectations regularly</li> <li>- I will be a role model by using the expectations and encouraging my friends to do the same</li> <li>- I know my teachers will support me in proactively solving problems and finding mutually agreeable solutions, if expectations are not being met</li> </ul>
2- Begin With the End In Mind	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- At OJCS each person is responsible for the other - North star alert</li> <li>- I want to go to a school that has clear and consistent expectations</li> <li>- I want to know what the expectations are and what the goals of my classroom are</li> <li>-I want everyone to get along and feel welcomed in my class</li> <li>-I want to feel respected and appreciated in my class</li> </ul>
3- First Things First	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- I will model what positive leadership looks like</li> <li>- I will try my best</li> <li>- I will listen to feedback</li> <li>- I will apologize and learn from my mistakes</li> <li>- I will collaborate with my teachers on proactively solving problems so that I can learn new skills</li> <li>- I will keep an open and positive mindset</li> </ul>
4- Think Win - Win	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- I know that teachers want students to be leaders, and students want control and ownership over their actions</li> <li>- I know everyone wants to work in a classroom that is calm, respectful, encouraging and friendly</li> <li>- If I see win-win is not happening in my classroom I will try and remind others what it looks like (we learn better together - North star alert)</li> <li>- I know win-win means I need to problem solve conflicts collaboratively so everyone feels listened to and valued - I can ask a teacher for help if I need it</li> </ul>
5- Seek First to Understand	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- It's important to listen to all sides. When I'm frustrated or upset, I will listen to other people's points of view</li> <li>- I will ask questions when I don't understand what is happening</li> </ul>

	- I will try and understand which expectation was broken and why, and think about and practice how I can choose differently next time (we own my own learning - we own our own story - North Star alert)
6- Synergize	-Being a positive leader in my class means I need to work well with others. I need to synergize. - When solving a conflict, I will remind myself that it's better to try and find common ground and work together to come up with a solution (there is a floor but no ceiling - North Star alert) -I know teachers can help me synergize with others when it's tricky for me
7- Sharpen the Saw	-I know that to be a positive leader in my classroom then I need to sleep well, eat well, exercise, and do activities and hobbies that I love - I need to be mindful and keep a positive and open mindset - I will demonstrate having fun and positive spirit throughout my day (Ruach - North start alert)
